

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE AT RISK OF SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

One Day Training Course

23rd January 2007

Weston Super Mare
The Arosfa Hotel

STAY SAFE

Children and Young People are safe from maltreatment, neglect, violence and sexual exploitation

The Barnardo's Bristol BASE project, who have pioneered work on tackling the sexual exploitation of young people, are offering this training day as part of the sharing of their practice and experience.

AIM OF THE TRAINING: To understand the experiences and practice issues relating to children and young people who are at risk of sexual exploitation.

OBJECTIVES OF THE TRAINING:

- To develop skills in the identification of children and young people who are sexually exploited.
- To acknowledge the links between running away and sexual exploitation and the wider experiences of children and young people.
- To understand the different experiences of males and females who are at risk of sexual exploitation.
- To explore the professional attitudes and values relating to those children at risk of exploitation and to address issues of diversity.
- To explore the multi-agency roles and responsibilities in undertaking this work and to gain an understanding of the legal framework relating to work with young people at risk of sexual exploitation.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: The training is relevant to all those who are working with young people who need to be aware of the risks of sexual exploitation and abuse.

COST OF THE TRAINING: £65 including lunch and refreshments.
