Barnardo's Tamkeen service is a culturally and religiously informed service for Muslims living in Rotherham

Barnardo's Tamkeen service provides safeguarding support for:

- Parents and carers
- Children and young people 8-18 years old
- Professionals
- Organisations

How we can help parents, schools, colleges and professionals:

- Culture and faith appropriate workshops
 - Culturally appropriate training
- School / college liaison with parents & carers
- Creating safe spaces and dialogue with students & staff
- Partnership working and sharing resources / information
 - Raising awareness and signposting

The Tamkeen service is able to:

- Work alongside schools in their response to Covid impacted Muslim children and their families
- Co-design culturally appropriate practices to meet the needs of Muslim young people and the sharing of best practice
- Support children and families in engaging with professionals and other services
