

Barnardo's charity stores open in Scotland

You can find out which stores in Scotland are now open on the list below, stores are listed alphabetically.

We look forward to seeing you in store but our priority is helping you to shop safely so we have introduced some new measures:-

- We may restrict the number of people in stores at any one time
- Please ensure you keep 2 metres apart while shopping in store
- Please pay by contactless where possible
- At times stores may have to close for cleaning
- We are accepting donations, but where possible please call ahead before taking any donations you have to your local store
- Some of our stores may have restricted opening hours

Remember you can shop our great value range of charity cards, homeware, toys, gifts and so much more at our online store

Browse our extensive range on ebay

Our shops play a key role in funding our work. Learn how you can make an impact, have fun and learn new skills. Enquire about volunteering

Barnardo's Scotland works with more than 16,300 children and young people in over 140 specialised community-based services across Scotland, and 95 shops across the country directly supporting the services. Our work includes: fostering and adoption services and support; helping children break free from sexual exploitation; supporting young carers; helping young people in to employment and helping children living in poverty.

Visit www.barnardos.org.uk/scotland to find out how you can get involved and show you believe in children.
